In support of this Sixth Interim Fee Application, McKenna shows the Court the following:

Background

1. On September 15, 2008 and periodically thereafter (the “Commencement Date”), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. 4. On December 2, 2008, the Debtors filed the Application of the Debtors Pursuant to Sections 327(e) and 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for Authorization to Employ and Retain McKenna Long & Aldridge LLP as Special Counsel to the Debtors, Nunc Pro Tunc to the Commencement Date [Docket No. 2021] (the “Employment Application”). 13. On June 25, 2009 the Court entered the Third Amended Interim Compensation Order.

14. Pursuant to Sections 105(a) and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) and standing General Orders M-219 and M-348 of the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, the Third Amended Interim Compensation Order authorizes the interim monthly compensation and reimbursement of expense procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Motion.

15. The Fee Order and the Third Amended Interim Compensation Order authorize professionals paid from the Debtors' bankruptcy estates to serve monthly statements ("Monthly Statements"), via hand or overnight delivery, seeking payment for services rendered and for out-of-pocket expenses or other charges incurred on or before the thirtieth (30th) day of each month following the month for which compensation is sought on (i) the Fee Committee (specifically, Kenneth Feinberg, Chairman of the Fee Committee); (ii) the Debtor; (iii) counsel for the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges, LLP; (iv) counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP; and (v) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York. McKenna's Sixth Interim Fee Application

16. In accordance with Sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016, the Fee Committee Order and the Third Amended Interim Compensation Order, McKenna seeks: (i) allowance of compensation for professional services McKenna performed during the Sixth Interim Period in the total amount of $460,318.50; and (ii) allowance of its actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Sixth Interim Period in the total amount of $25,608.10.

17. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(b); this matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

18. By this Application, McKenna submits its Monthly Statements in the total amount of $485,926.60 (fees in the amount of $460,318.50 and expenses in the amount of $25,608.10) for services performed and expenses incurred during the Sixth Interim Period. During the Sixth Interim Period, McKenna received payment from the Debtors in the amount of $393,862.90 (fees in the amount of $368,254.80 and expenses in the amount of $25,608.10); therefore, McKenna has an outstanding balance, as of the date of this Application, of $92,063.70, for which McKenna seeks an award of interim compensation as for the period of June 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010.

19. Notice of this Application will be served in accordance with the procedures set forth in the order entered on September 22, 2008 governing case management and administrative procedures for these cases [Docket No. 285] on (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the attorneys for the Creditors' Committee; (iii) the attorneys for the Debtors' postpetition lenders; (iv) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (v) the Internal Revenue Service; (vi) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; and (vii) all parties who have requested notice in these

Chapter 11 Cases. McKenna has served a copy of this Fee Application upon (i) the Fee Committee; (ii) the Debtor; (iii) counsel for the Debtors, Weil, Gotshal & Manges, LLP; (iv) counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP; and (v) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York.

20. Under Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may allow compensation and reimbursement of McKenna's expenses only after notice and hearing. Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a) provides that hearings on applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses totaling in excess of $1,000 must be on twenty (20) day notice to parties in interest. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the filing of interim fee applications. This Application is the sixth such application made by McKenna under Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code.

21. All legal services performed by McKenna were performed for and on behalf of Lehman and not on behalf of any committee, creditor, or other person or entity.

22. Attached hereto as Exhibit "C" is a summary of the hours for which compensation is sought.

23. Attached hereto as Exhibit "D" is a summary of the expenses for which reimbursement is sought.

24. Attached hereto as Exhibits "E1" through "E4" are copies of the invoices for the Sixth Interim Period, which include time descriptions by McKenna professionals by code related to the matter or tasks reflected in the time entries, the expense detail for a given month sorted by category, and supplemental information sheets that provide further detail and supporting documentation for expenses.

Statutory Basis for Compensation

27. Sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provide the statutory basis for compensation of professionals in bankruptcy cases. Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under Section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to an examiner, trustee under chapter 11, or professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

28. The Bankruptcy Code provisions concerning the compensation of professionals are designed to ensure that qualified attorneys will be compensated for services rendered to debtors at a market rate for comparable services rendered in non-bankruptcy cases. In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 76 F.3d 66, 71 (2d Cir. 1996). The rationale behind this goal is to ensure that counsel will not be deterred from taking bankruptcy cases due to failure to pay adequate compensation. Id. at 72.

29. McKenna respectfully represents to the Court that the fees and expenses requested to be paid are allowable and reasonable pursuant to the twelve (12) factor test as set forth in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974), as well as the amendments to Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. Those tests and the applicability of each test to the services performed by McKenna in this case are set forth below:

A. Time and Labor Required: During the period of June 1, 2010 through September 30, 2010, McKenna has expended 1,145.8 hours as Special Counsel to Lehman. The approximate blended hourly rate is $434.05 for professionals and $201.27 for paraprofessionals.

The substance of the time expended is set forth fully in Exhibits “E1” through “E4” to this Application.

B. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions Presented: Several of the above-referenced matters have involved novel and difficult issues.

C. Skill Requisite to Perform Legal Services: McKenna respectfully represents that it has the skill to perform the legal services rendered in a professional fashion.

D. Preclusion of Other Employment Due to Acceptance of the Case: The amount of time devoted to the above-referenced matters by the attorneys and paraprofessionals of McKenna significantly precluded them from performing other work to the extent of the time devoted to this case as covered by this Application.

E. Customary Fees for the Type of Services Rendered: McKenna respectfully represents that the fees requested herein are within the range of customary fees for the type of services rendered and are based upon the hours actually spent and multiplied by the normal billing rates for work of this nature, and that the billing rates are in keeping with the hourly rates charged by McKenna in non-bankruptcy matters.

F. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent: McKenna believes that its fees and expenses in the above-referenced matters are contingent only to the extent that they are subject to this Court’s approval.

G. Time Limitations Imposed by the Client or the Circumstances: The time limitations imposed or created by the circumstances of the above-referenced matters often required intense work by McKenna under short time-frames.

H. Amounts Involved and Results Obtained: McKenna respectfully represents that it has obtained good results for Lehman as Special Counsel thus far in the above-referenced matters.

I. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Attorneys: McKenna respectfully represents that McKenna has experience within the areas involved in its representation of Lehman.

J. Undesirability of the Case: McKenna respectfully represents that this factor is not applicable to this proceeding.

K. Nature and Length of Professional Relationship with Client: McKenna has represented Lehman for more than fifteen (15) years.

L. Awards in Similar Cases: McKenna respectfully represents that this Sixth Interim Fee Application, and the costs and fees sought herein, is in keeping with similar applications for the payment of professional fees and expenses, including attorneys' fees in other cases.

30. Based on the foregoing, McKenna submits that the services rendered to Lehman, for which compensation is sought herein, were necessary and beneficial to the Debtors' estates and parties in interest. McKenna further submits that the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent and value of such services to the Debtors, their estates and all parties in interest.

Compliance with Applicable Rules

31. Pursuant to the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995 (the "Amended Guidelines"), attached hereto as Exhibit "A" is a copy of the Certification of Charles D. Weiss (the “Weiss Certification”) certifying compliance with the same.

32. During the Sixth Interim Period, McKenna received no payment and no promises of payment from any source for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity in connection with the fees and expenses sought to be allowed pursuant to this Application. There is no agreement or understanding between McKenna and any other person, other than members of the firm, for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in these cases.

33. As set forth in the Weiss Certification, the fees charged by McKenna in these cases are billed in accordance with its existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Sixth Interim Period. The rates McKenna charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in these cases are the same rates McKenna charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable non-bankruptcy related matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national market.

34. Pursuant to the United States Trustee’s Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 adopted on January 30, 1996 (the “UST Guidelines”), attached hereto as Exhibit “B” is a breakdown of the hours, hourly rates and fees attributable to the various individuals at McKenna who rendered the services for which compensation is sought in the Sixth Interim Fee Application.

Actual and Necessary Expenses

35. As set forth in Exhibit “D” attached hereto, McKenna has incurred $25,608.10 of expenses in providing professional services to the debtors during the Sixth Interim Period.

36. McKenna charged $0.10 per page for photocopying. McKenna utilizes an electronic device that electronically records the number of copies made. Whenever feasible,

McKenna sends large photocopying projects to an outside service that charges a reduced rate for photocopying. McKenna does not charge for incoming facsimile transmissions and only charges the cost of the long distance telephone call, if applicable, for outgoing facsimile transmissions.

37. McKenna's charges for photocopying and facsimile transmissions do not exceed the maximum rate set forth by the Amended Guidelines. These charges are intended to cover McKenna's direct operating costs, including the use of machines, supplies and labor expenses, which costs are not incorporated in the McKenna hourly billing rates.

38. McKenna has flat rate contracts with LEXIS and WESTLAW for computerized legal research. The charges incurred each month are allocated to relevant clients. The resulting rates are less than the standard rates charged by LEXIS and WESTLAW.

39. McKenna believes the foregoing rates and expenses are the market rates generally employed by the majority of law firms when charging their clients for such services.

Notice

40. Notice of this Application will be served in accordance with the procedures set forth in the order entered on September 22, 2008 governing case management and administrative procedures for these cases [Docket No. 285] on (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the attorneys for the Creditors' Committee; (iii) the attorneys for the Debtors' postpetition lenders; (iv) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (v) the Internal Revenue Service; (vi) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; and (vii) all parties who have requested notice in these chapter 11 cases.
